

Altana advises KITCH'N BOX in the context of INTER INVEST CAPITAL's investment

Altana advised KITCH'N BOX, pioneer in the world of Dark Kitchen, i.e., rental of equipped business spaces and services for professionals in the restaurant and FoodTech industries, in the context of the acquisition of a stake by Inter Invest Capital.

Thanks to this transaction, KITCH'N BOX secures €7 million in equity financing to transform the restaurant and meal delivery sector.

The health crisis has generated numerous changes in the catering market. The sector has been forced to adapt to new consumption patterns (explosion of home and office delivery) and the development of delocalized kitchens with the arrival of a new generation of restaurateurs ("Ghost-" or "Dark Kitchen").

Since 2016, KITCH'N BOX has been offering chefs and restaurateurs turnkey spaces and a panel of shared services that allow professionals to focus on their business, while reducing their investments.

Team :

KITCH'N BOX was advised by Altana with Fabien Pouchot, partner, Aurore Lacroix and Olivier Carmès attorneys (M&A), Amélie Pinçon, partner (Real Estate Law), and Lucie Giret, counsel (Economic and Competition Law).
